25X1A SUBJECT: Personal Property Claim - [REDACTED]

3. Staff Position:

25X1A a. One of the basic requirements as set forth in [REDACTED] which must be satisfied prior to settlement of a personal property claim, is the determination of whether the loss, damage, or destruction of private property is suffered incident to service. The evidence submitted in this case indicates that, while at the insurance firm, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] visit to the insurance firm. Further, the fact that he was provided a person from the Motor Pool who was familiar with local streets rather than a chauffeur driven vehicle does not establish the United States Government as an insurer of a personally owned vehicle.

25X1A

b. The Claims Review Board takes the position that [REDACTED] errand falls into the category of personal business and, as such, the safety of his vehicle was clearly his responsibility and of no official concern of the United States Government.

4. Recommendation: It is recommended that [REDACTED] claim be denied as not incident to his service.

Don:
In my opinion the facts
in this case clearly supports the position taken by the Board. Other than compassion, I see no reason
approve [REDACTED] claim. 25X1A

I recommend that you approve the findings of the Board 25X1A

Danny - Pls.

give me independent review. Blake
was sort of sympathetic, asked
Board to re-review.
They are unanimous
in their view.
